BRIDGE FOR DESIGN

A scenic landscape featuring a stone building, a stream with a waterfall, and a mountain range in the background. The image is the cover of a magazine, with the title 'BRIDGE FOR DESIGN' overlaid in large white letters. The background shows a stone building with large windows, a stream flowing through a garden with various plants and rocks, and a mountain range in the distance under a blue sky with clouds.

MOTTAHEDEH HAS partnered with Rookwood to create a collection that celebrates the American Pottery Movement which shocked the European market from 1870-1920. These monumental vases are taken from moulds found in Rookwood's archives and finished with the original glaze formulas that highlight their beautiful simplistic shapes, wonderful craftsmanship and renowned vellum glazes.
